16 October 2008

On 15 October 2008, the undersigned has served to the office of the Public Prosecution Service at the Court of Appeal of Amsterdam the judgment of the Enterprise Chamber of the Court of Appeal of Amsterdam (the "Enterprise Chamber") rendered on 14 October 2008. Pursuant to this judgment the unknown minority shareholders (the "Minority Shareholders") in the capital of the private company with limited liability STORK B.V., having its corporate seat in Amsterdam (hereinafter: the "Company"), are ordered to transfer their shares in the Company (the "Minority Shares") to the private company with limited liability Stork Holding B.V. (formerly named London Acquisition Holding B.V.), having its corporate seat in Amsterdam ("Stork Holding"), pursuant to article 2:201a of the Dutch Civil Code ("DCC").

The Enterprise Chamber has set the price of each Minority Share to be transferred at EUR 48,40 per 14 October 2008, plus statutory interest as from 14 October 2008 until the date of transfer of the Minority Shares.

Stork Holding will consign the price of each Minority Share plus statutory interest pursuant to article 2:201a section 8 DCC on 16 October 2008. As a result of the consignment, the unencumbered right to the Minority Shares will transfer to Stork Holding. Minority Shareholders can receive the price per Minority Share plus interest as from that date onwards by applying to their bank or commissioner, or to the Dutch Ministry of Finance, attn. Consignment office, PO Box 20201, 2500 EE, The Hague (see also: www.minfin.nl).
